Refund Policy

In compliance with the EU Distance Selling Directive and Consumer Protection (Distance Selling) Regulations 2000.

This law and the rights detailed below apply to all transactions within the UK for customers in the UK and the EU, where the customer does not meet the seller in person. Sales from one business to another are not controlled by these regulations. If you are a self-employed professional, we interpret this application to be a business-to-business transaction.

The law allows you a 7-day "cooling off" period. During that time you have the right to cancel your contract and to obtain a full refund. The 7 days will begin from the time you receive our confirmation of your enrolment. During that time you may cancel without a reason. Let us know by the quickest means: email, fax, telephone (we will return the call if you reach our voicemail and leave your number - but landlines only please, no mobiles.) Please also confirm your request by letter sent by regular mail to our office address. If you claim a refund within the 7-day "cooling off" period we will let you have that refund within 30 days.

However, the regulations allow that if the order is for specially personalised goods, the right to cancel a purchase does not apply.

After the "cooling off" period, there is no obligation for us to make any refund. Our services (provision of membership certificates, database entries and/or other services) will be available for you during your registration period and for any longer period that we have agreed. If you do not exercise your right to avail yourself of those services, then that does not entitle you to a refund. If you need to suspend your membership for any reason, it is your responsibility to let us know as soon as possible, and we will give you any appropriate advice.

If you are outside the UK or EU the Distance Selling Regulations do not apply.
